The DMM participants had already arrived on Friday evening and had to prove their philatelic knowledge and skills in five disciplines. A four-sheet exhibit on the subject of "My permanent series" had to be designed from given material. While the Nordrhein-Westfalen-team was initially ahead, in the final sprint the "German-German" team won the competition for the coveted championship trophy.

The program was rounded off with a stroll through the city of Mainz with a visit to the Carnival Museum on Saturday afternoon. By chance there was an ice cream parlor on the way, so that the visitors were "forced" to get an ice cream there.

After an exciting, entertaining weekend, all participants said goodbye with "See you again at the XXI. DMM in Vlotho!". This will take place from 26.-28. September 2021 under the motto "Fairy tales, fables, children's literature" took place.
