DPHJ press release of October 28th, 2021:

Greetings from Neptune - water is the main topic of the JUNGE SAMMLER 3/2021

The new JUNGE SAMMLER presents himself with a great mini poster. In keeping with the cover picture with a rescue cruiser, the interior part contains a longitudinal section through a rescue cruiser. The stamp issued for this can also be found there. But 44 pages are not just about sea rescue. Water as a vital commodity is discussed just as much as floods or droughts. Even Fridolin and Filu use water to cool down in the comic. Contributions to the topic of German ship mail and waves round off the maritime part. A contribution by Herbert Schumacher describes which German brands water is an issue. A contribution by Dietrich Ecklebe on "Ancient water supply systems in desert areas" is particularly worth reading. In this article, the journey goes to Oman, where the ancient water pipes provide the vital water to this day. Finally, the DPHJ forum also deals with the topic of water.

Contributions to the new international reply coupon and the exciting history of the "Ball Invitation Covers" of Mauritius, one of which was recently auctioned at Auktionshaus Gärtner, via Indian postal stationery postcards and the "Lord of the Rings" issue from New Zealand round off the philatelic part away. In addition, there is the popular young collector's quiz, reports from the state rings, a photo page on the Day of Young Stamp Friends and information on how to register for exhibitions in the booklet. Participants are also invited to participate in the Philamovie video competition for young people as part of HELVETIA 2022. And those who want to make their own Christmas mail today will also find tips from Monika Meinecke in the magazine.

The JUNGE SAMMLER is an excellent way to do philatelic work with children. Members and youth group leaders of the German Philatelist Youth will receive the booklet directly in their mailboxes these days. A sample booklet can be requested from the DPhJ office, Ahornweg 48 in 52511 Geilenkirchen, against return postage and information on age.
